TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is a recommendation letter for Dallas Elliott-Ellenton, and her company GlobalWebsiteCreations.com, of which she is President.

I have personally known Dallas for over 6 years, and have had the pleasure of hiring her and her company on many occasions. I have been involved in several start-up companies and Dallas has built and managed 6 websites for us. She is currently managing 2 of our sites on a full time basis.

We have used several other entities for our needs in the past, and have found her to be outstanding and to a much higher standard than all the others. She has always been fair and accommodating and has on too many occasions, rushed jobs for us that were late due to lack of planning on our part. She exhibits the highest standards of responsibility, creativity, professionalism, and time management, and I would not hesitate to recommend her to anyone.

Should you require any further information, do not hesitate to contact me.
