To Whom it May Concern:

RE: Globalwebsitecreations.com

Globalwebsitecreations.com has recently completed a website for our association. We are a non-profit organization which is desperately seeking ways to get our message out to the public. Dallas Elliott—Ellenton and her team offered to help and we couldn't be happier.

Our board of directors is all volunteers, with not much computer knowledge, so we handed the complete designing over to Dallas, and boy did she satisfy. We are spread all over Alberta and our site required a lot of history which meant some digging for information. As a result our information was sent to Globalwebsitecreations.com in bits and pieces. They couldn't have been more patient or helpful.

The Canadian Rodeo Historical Association would recommend Dallas and her team to anyone seeking to design a website. We couldn't have been happier with our page and would sincerely like to thank them for the all their hard work and ideas. But most of all we would like to thank them for donating all the work involved in this page. We are very happy to have them join our association in our journey to preserve Canadian Rodeo Heritage.

Yours truly,
Canadian Rodeo Historical Association
